S.R.O. 507.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of posting of bills and advertisements and of the position, size, shape or style of name-boards, sign-boards and sign-posts in the St. Thomas' Mount cum Pallavaram Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, St. Thomas' Mount cum Pallavaram in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (23) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws for regulating the posting of bills and advertisements and position, size, shape or style of name-boards, sign-boards and sign-posts in St. Thomas' Mount cum Pallavaram Cantonment:—

1. In these bye-laws, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, notice includes a circular, placard, advertisement, hand bill or poster and board includes any name board, sign board, sign post or advertisement board—ing of any material whatsoever.

2. The Cantonment Board may provide at suitable places within the limits of the said Cantonment such number of public notice boards as it may think fit, for the purpose of posting or affixing notices.

3. Such notice boards shall be of uniform size and each such notice board shall be divided into such number of equal spaces as the Cantonment Board may think fit.

4. For the use of each space on any such notice board the Cantonment Board may either charge such fees as it may from time to time by public notice prescribe in this behalf or may allow any space in any such notice board to be used free of charge.

5. Where such notice boards have been provided by the Cantonment Board:

No person shall within the Cantonment limits except with the permission in writing, of the Executive Officer or such other officer as may be appointed in this behalf, post or affix, or cause to be posted or affixed, any notice upon or to any building, land, tree, railing, culvert, telegraph post or any other immovable property belonging to Government or to the Cantonment Board or under the control of the Cantonment Board or upon or to the outer wall of any other building or on the entrance gate leading to or the wall or fence surrounding such building except with the assent of the owner or occupier of the building and of the Cantonment Board.

6. No notice shall be posted or affixed to any such notice board, unless it has been previously approved by the Executive Officer or other officer appointed in this behalf.

7. Any person requiring permission to post or affix a notice upon or to any such notice board, shall apply, in writing, to the Executive Officer or other officer appointed in this behalf who shall refuse to pass only such notice as in his opinion, is obscene, unsightly or otherwise objectionable.

8. The Executive Officer or other officer appointed in this behalf, when granting permission shall affix to the notice a date stamp officially marked specifying the date up to which permission is granted to exhibit the notice on such notice boards and shall at the same time indicate the place or places at which the notice may be posted or affixed and the space to be occupied by the notice on such notice board. Ordinarily not more than one space shall be allotted to each such notice. In extraordinary cases, the decision to grant more than one space rests with the Executive Officer.

9. Not more than one copy of a notice shall, without the special permission in writing of the Executive Officer, or other officer appointed in this behalf, be posted upon or affixed to any such notice board. In extraordinary cases, the Executive Officer is authorised to use his discretion to accord special permission. For every additional copy so permitted charges will be collected at the rates fixed under bye-law 4.

10. No notice posted upon or affixed to any such notice board shall be over-laid, unless the date up to which such notice was permitted to be exhibited, has already expired.

11. No person shall pull down or destroy any notice that has been posted upon or affixed to any such notice board without the permission of the Executive Officer or other officer appointed in this behalf.

12. The Cantonment Board, may, by public notice, regulate the position, size, or style of name-boards, sign-boards, or sign-posts within cantonment limits, in such manner as may be specified in the notice.

13. Any person who commits a contravention of any of these bye-laws, shall on conviction by a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
